Thought for the Week:

"Deaf people are becoming more politically aware and active, and I believe we will continue to be so. We no longer want or expect other people to represent us."

Dr. Robert R. Davila - Superintendent, New York School for the Deaf "Fanwood"

The ISD Campus Bulletin is published weekly during the school year.

CB Regrets

Four names were left off the list of Middle School students who had no detention hall first quarter. The four students are Kevan McDaniel, DuWycia Wilson, Josh Powers, and Ginger Mathison.

"Safeplaces" Contest

All Middle School seventh graders entered the "Safeplaces" poster contest. Congratulations to winners George Young and Johnny Mazurkiewicz. Each received $25.00 and will represent ISD at the finals at Union Station on November 19.

Library Notes

Reminder:

Children's Book Week is November 14 - 20. All departments have been contacted about the activities planned for their students in Alumni Hall Library during this celebration. Special treats will be distributed to all students.

Donations

Friends of Sharon Baker donated two reference books, "Brewer's Dictionary of Phrase & Fable," and "The Timetables of History," in memory of her beloved father, Lee G. Baker who passed away last summer.

Martha Larsen Memorial

Once again this year, Harold Larsen, former ISD teacher, presented a check in memory of his first wife, Martha, on her birthday - November 13th. The former Preschool library, now the office of Family and Student Services, was named after Martha to honor her many years of teaching.

ISD appreciates and thanks the Larsens for their generosity.

Goodbye to Chickenpox?

This may be the year. At a recent meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics, two infectious disease specialists predicted that a vaccine against chickenpox will be available by the end of 1993. The varicella vaccine has been tested and on the verge of being licensed in the United States for several years, but production problems have kept it unavailable except to study groups. Vincent Fulginiti, M.D., dean and professor of pediatrics at Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans, called the vaccine, "a good vaccine for healthy children," which may be combined with the measles, mumps and rubella vaccine children now get. Studies have shown that approximately 10 percent of children who receive the vaccine are not entirely protected after immunization, but many of those children develop only mild cases of chicken pox. Unfortunately, the vaccine has not been shown to be as effective in high-risk populations, such as those people with altered immunity, or persons who have diseases such as leukemia, HIV/AIDS, or Hodgkin's disease.

Currently, as we witness every year in school settings, this disease is easily passed to any aged person (when exposed) who has not previously had the disease. Chicken pox is spread by respiratory droplets (sneezes, etc.) from person-to-person and is highly contagious. Crowded populated areas such as stores, schools and churches are prime locations for easy transmission and, unfortunately, one has already spread the disease before symptoms occur.

Athletics Update

Cross Country Wrap-up

ISD fielded a cross country team last year for the first time in 25 years. This year's effort culminated in participation in the Deaf Athletics Federation of United States (DAFUS) National Cross Country championships at the Louisiana School for the Deaf. Indiana was 6-2 for the season going into the nationals.

Danny Moore, having a banner year, outdistanced everyone at the meet. Moore, with a single defeat for the season, proved himself the best distance runner in the nation. Michael Smith came in second holding off the Louisiana and California runners behind him.

J.T. Davisson improved at every meet and came on strong at the finish (9th). His standings were the key to upsetting California (which came into the competition with four consecutive national titles).

James Rayburn placed 10th, Toby Hostetler, 13th, and Shane Taylor 20th place.

Junior Varsity Volleyball Wrap-up

Beginning with the first pre-season practice it was obvious that a lot of work was needed to prepare for the upcoming volleyball season, Coach Jackie McBroom remembers. The team worked hard to improve skills. The older team members were very helpful in guiding younger members to improve. At last the season began and the team played well, improving through the season and learning from their early mistakes.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

☞ Defeated Illinois, Wisconsin, and a very strong Lutheran team.

☞ Finished the season with a 5 - 9 record and gained much needed experience which should help in coming seasons.

Coach McBroom says, "A big THANK YOU to the team for all their hard work and cooperation this past season, and I hope to see all of them again next season."

Varsity Volleyball Wrap-up

Last August during the pre-season 18 girls began training for ISD's two volleyball teams. All but one attended the entire two week camp. The team learned many different drills and techniques, showed their potential and improved dramatically.

During the season (14 games plus two tournaments) the varsity team was as follows: Chandra Boyd, Melody Hartter, Felicia Hubbard, Jenny Cooper, Julie Reis, Miki Smith, Keri Watkins, and Trisha Boyd. Heather Hyatt was manager and Shane Taylor was statistician.

The season record was 12-9, the school's second best showing ever (1989's team holds that record).

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

☞ Defeated Maryland Deaf, St. Rita's, a strong Lutheran team, and Wisconsin Deaf.

☞ Won second place in CSSD in Flint, Michigan.

☞ Senior Chandra Boyd set a new ISD record for number of assists.

FSS Retreat

On October 8, the FSS Center Team Leaders met for a full day retreat off campus. Chris Fetzer, Louise Fitzpatrick, Diane Hazel, Cindy Lawrence, and Bruce Peters attended. Ann Titus served as facilitator.

The retreat goal was to identify and build consensus for key management principles. This was accomplished by taking a real life situation and examining individual responses to it. The group used the situation of hiring new staff and the procedures that each individual would use to hire someone. Through this activity, the group's values associated with management became clear. The group agreed they valued: The use of systematic procedures for making important decisions, the Deaf Community as a network for finding resources, Group decision making and collaboration, and the empowerment of staff.

The activity also provided some ground work for actually preparing procedures for hiring. The group agreed to continue working on those procedures, and will begin to implement a final plan by January 1, 1994.

Finally, the activity emphasized the group's need for regular opportunities to discuss school issues and support each other. The schedule for daily meetings was revised to include a time for this kind of discussion.

A more detailed summary of the retreat may be obtained by contacting FSS at ext. 416 TTY/Voice.

Jennifer Brezinski Makes News!

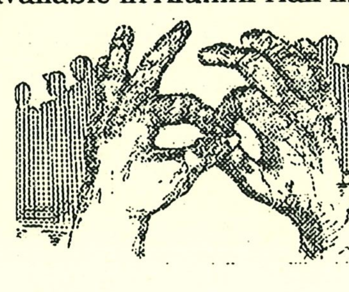

Believed to be first female touchdown

ISD senior Jennifer Brezinski's accomplishments were featured recently in a story in the Indianapolis News. Jennifer is one of the few women to have played IHSAA football. It appears she made history as the first women to score a touchdown in IHSAA sanctioned play. Perhaps a national first should also be credited to Jennifer, but since neither the Indiana High School Athletic Association nor the National High School Federation have records, the status of her unique accomplishment is unclear.

ISD's feelings are quite clear - Jennifer's the greatest!

Monograph Published

The new NAD Deaf American Monograph, Deafness - 1993 - 2013, featuring a discussion by representatives of the ISD Community, has recently been published and a complementary copy of the publication presented to the school which will be available in Alumni Hall library.

Thought for the Week:

"I felt I had come to a sister school and a program I can relate to. There is a hospitable atmosphere and an enthusiastic spirit that is infectious and attractive. I especially enjoyed the student involvement on explaining the program and expressing their sense of pride. You have much to be proud of."

Deaf School Superintendent - at Midwest Superintendent's Conference at ISD, November 1993*

The Westin Helps, Too

The Westin Hotel generously loaned the Fairfield Inn two ADA kits for the visiting superintendents. The Fairfield was somewhat prepared for the visitors, but did not have enough decoders to provide for all the guests. The Westin Hotel has ADA kits that provided smoke alarms, lights for the door and phone, alarm vibrators, TTY, and decoders. VIC is very thankful to Mike Ostiguy from the Westin who generously let ISD borrow the kits.

ISD Library National Tour Site

Alumni Hall Library's program and Media Center will be toured by a group of school librarians from around the country when the American Association of School Librarians (AASL) holds its seventh national convention in Indianapolis November 9 - 13 1994.

ISD is proud of its library program and welcomes the opportunity to showcase the library's many strengths.

Tech Prep and Its Impact on ISD

The Tech Prep Planning Committee will present "Tech Prep and Its Impact on ISD" to all interested staff members December 8, 3:05 pm in Alumni Hall Auditorium.

Library Notes:

Superintendent Laird and Linda Canty are proud to announce that the Department of Education has awarded a "Reading is Fundamental" (RIF) mini-grant to the K - 5 program. ISD was one of 46 sites selected for the program out of 166 applications. The RIF committee, including 11 staff members and parents, will plan three special reading activities to take place throughout the '93 - '94 school year. Free paperback books will be given to each K - 5 student after each of the three planned activities so that they may build their own personal libraries. ISD appreciates the Department of Education for this generous award.

ISDUTA

Everything teachers always wanted to know about ISDUTA (Indiana School for the Deaf Unified Teachers Association) but were afraid to ask. Now is the chance to ask questions at the meeting in Alumni Hall Library on Wednesday, December 1 at 3:05 pm. Don Grable, ISTA (Indiana State Teachers Association) representative, will be present to answer any questions.

News from the Business Office

Changes in some business office locations occurred the week of November 15 to facilitate a more efficient use of personnel, time, and space. Business Manager Michael Burk relocated to Room G08 with Secretary Sandy Wright. Personnel Assistant Kelly Phillips moved the Personnel Office into room G19, and Accountant Kim Squires moved the accounting functions to room G09. The move (to be completed before Thanksgiving break) requires some phone extension changes PLEASE NOTE:

American Deaf Leaders of Today

Superintendent Laird was recently selected as one of the American Deaf Leaders of Today. Ralph White from the Texas Commission for the Deaf and Hearing Impaired of Austin, Texas, will make the presentation later this month in Oklahoma City. More information to follow after the conference. Congratulations Superintendent Laird!

Reason for the Season II

Mark your calendars for 7 pm Thursday, December 2. The Hendricks County Theater will have a special performance for the entire ISD community. This holiday performance has on-stage interpreters and is filled with the spirit of giving. Last year this theatrical civic group donated their fifteen-hundred dollar profit to ISD, and again this year has promised to share generously with the school. Reason for the Season II would be a wonderful family event to begin sharing the holiday spirit. Hope to see you there at the Danville Royal Theater!

Museum Volunteers

On Thursday, November 11 Ramona Duncan-Huse from the Indiana Historical Society donated the entire day to ISD's Museum and Archives. Her skills and expertise were shared with six community volunteers interested in learning the proper techniques for restoring and preserving artifacts. ISD thanks Ramona for her interest and spirit in helping the school. VIC also extends sincere appreciation to Connie Brake, Virgil Bippus, Teresa Schmidt, Wayne Walters, Bill Boone, and Gale Walker. The group spent Veteran's Day being trained by Ramona so that they will be prepared to regularly volunteer in the restoration and preservation process. The day of training was set up by David Reynolds, Special Projects Coordinator. David thanks all the community volunteers and Ramona for their time and energy to this project. A very special thanks to Bill Coffey, who spent the day interpreting for the group.

Staff Development News

CPR

This 6 hour program covers one-person CPR procedures for adult, child, and infant victims. Participants will learn emergency basic life support by practicing on lifelike mechanical mannequins. This class is being offered on December 15, 8:30 am - 3:30 pm at the State Training Center. Registration is $25.

Cultural Diversity

Participants will learn to more effectively work and communicate with employees from varying cultures and will leave the program with a greater awareness of the kinds of communication and behaviors that are destructive or constructive in building positive work relationships. This workshop is being held on December 13, 9 am - 12 pm at the State Training Center. Free!

Managing a Culturally Diverse Workforce

The workshop's aim is to teach participants how to effectively manage a culturally diverse team of employees. The objectives are to:

- Create a climate that allows the organization to inspire the best contribution from everyone.
- Teach managers how to respond appropriately to discrimination and prejudice to avoid negative im pacts to agency goals.
- Teach managers to choose policies and approaches that empower a diverse team of employees.
- Teach interactive skills to bridge any group boundary (age, sex, culture, geographic origin, etc.).

This class is being offered December 14 at the State Training Center. Registration $50.

It is highly recommended that participants attend the "Cultural Diversity" class on 12/13/93 prior to taking this class.

Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar

This program is designed to assist state employees with advance retirement planning by providing information useful in making informed decisions. A sound retirement requires careful advance planning involving numerous interrelated topics, including: financial planning, Social Security, insurance, Indiana Deferred Compensation and legal issues. This session is being held December 16, 8:30 am - 4:00 pm at the State Training Center. The course is free of charge.

Other workshops:

Grammar, Usage and Business Writing Skills
How to Handle Difficult People
Interpersonal Skills

Midwest Superintendent's Conference Kudos

The planning committee (George Stailey, David Reynolds and Kathy Smith) for the Midwest Conference would like to extend many thanks to all of ISD for the efforts to prepare for the twentieth annual conference. Each department contributed greatly to the success of the event.

Housekeeping, Grounds, Maintenance and the Student Development Center staff were helpful in getting the various physical surroundings ready. Their eye for detail and timeliness are most appreciated.

Also providing beautification to the physical environment of Alumni Hall were a diverse group of people who decorated bulletin boards. Three large bulletin boards were decorated to display the artwork of the 0 - 5 students, the K - 5 students and Middle and High School students. Please take the time to see this display by ISD's budding artists. Thanks to Ella Elkins, Jonas Fenicle, and Louise Fitzpatrick and the 0 - 5 staff for sharing these masterpieces. Other bulletin boards in Alumni Hall were provided by Middle School Volunteer Cindy Squires, Carrie Hendrickson, and Kathleen Walters, Melba Bippus, April Bippus, and Pat Cooper, who worked cooperatively to display the superintendents and their school colors. Thanks to all for their artistic flair!

The K - 5 Department had a tremendous display created by Jonas Fenicle, Pamela Haring, and Penni Jean Smith, who utilized the superintendents' pictures and a map of the United States to show students where the visitors lived. All the teachers in the department helped to prepare the students and during their assembly with the superintendents the students were able to demonstrate their recognition of the superintendents and the schools that they represented.

Student Council officers and representatives from the educational departments escorted the superintendents through their respective departments. Thanks to the following student guides:

K - 5

Valerie Sharer & Bryan Huser

Middle School

George Young &

Duwycia Wilson

High School

Jennifer Brezinski,

Melody Hartter & Shawn Paige

The planning committee especially thanks the teachers and department supervisors for their support prior to and during the conference. Their efforts to welcome the superintendents and have departments in outstanding shape were well received and recognized.

Diane Hazel and David Geeslin discussed ISD's BiBi philosophy and the related issue of transition with the group. They spent a great deal of time together developing their presentation, which provided the superintendents with stimulating information and "food for thought." Sincere appreciation to Diane, David, and Cindy Lawrence (who skillfully interpreted the meeting) for all their time and energy.

Some other "behind the scenes" people who deserve recognition for their efforts during preparations are North Central High School volunteers Lisa Weidekamp and April Clarkson, who prepared the information folders and filled and decorated "goodie bags" for each superintendent. Snacks for the "goodie bags" were provided by George Stailey, Kathy Smith and the High School cooking classes. The ISD Alumni Association provided sesquicentennial trinkets for the bags (a magnet, some coasters, and a deck of cards). Another person who was most helpful and supportive was Mary Alice Moon. Her willingness to help is never ending and is most appreciated.

ISD has some very talented cooks who most graciously provided morning and afternoon snacks for the group. Thanks to the following people who generously provided a variety of refreshments for the conference: Carol Keller, Mary Alice Moon, Peggy Baldridge, Susan Hocker, Bea Pfaff, Carrie Hendrickson, Edna Olsen, Linda Canty, Max Gallimore, Kathleen Robertson, Sharon Baker, Winona Alter, Sally DeNardin, Pat Cooper, and Judy Reynolds.

Thanks again to all those who showed their "Hoosier Hospitality" to the visiting superintendents.

Brown Cafeteria's staff served two wonderful luncheons to the group, both in the cafeteria's basement dining room (an extra challenge for the staff). The meals were enjoyed by all. Thanks!

Thanks to: George Perry, Diane Hazel, Bill Coffey, George Stailey, Kathy Roche, and Jerry Bass for providing interpreting services.

The planning committee cannot say enough to thank everyone who helped to make this a successful conference. The entire campus had a hand in getting things ready and sincere appreciation from the Superintendent and the planning committee is extended to all.
